

Under-Sea Craft Torpedoes Another American Steamer

Gravity of Tension Existing Between America and Germany Is Increased By Attack Upon U. S. Steamship, Nebraskan, Which Is Seriously Damaged But Not Sunk.

STATE DEPARTMENT AWAITS FULL INFORMATION REGARDING OUTRAGE

Italians Make Substantial Gains at Various Points and Blockade of Austrian Ports Is Declared—French Claim Successes and Russ Report Situation in Galicia Now Well in Hand—Germany Disputes Russ Claims.

By Associated Press.
London, May 26.—The American steamer Nebraskan, Captain Green, from Liverpool May 24 for Delaware breakwater, was torpedoed yesterday by a submarine at a point 40 miles west-southwest of Fastnet, off the south coast of Ireland. The sea was calm at the time. The crew at once took to the boats and stood by the steamer.

It was soon ascertained that the Nebraskan had not been seriously damaged. She had been struck forward and her four holes were full of water. The crew returned on board and got the vessel under way. No lives were lost among the crew. The Nebraskan did not carry any passengers.

The foregoing information was received today by the British Admiralty in London and it was at once communicated to the American Embassy.

Immediately after she was struck the Nebraskan began calling for help by wireless. Browhead received the wireless communication at 9 a. m. yesterday from Crookhaven.

A message to Lloyds from Kinsale Island says that the Nebraskan passed that point at 11 o'clock this morning, apparently bound for Queenstown. She was down at the bows, proceeding under her own steam and flying the signal "I am not under control."

The Nebraskan is owned by the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company of New York, and is of 2,625 tons register. She left New York on her eastward trip May 7, for Liverpool, arriving May 19. She was bound home in ballast.

The owners of the vessel have received a cable message from her captain saying that the Nebraskan was struck by either a mine or a torpedo, and that the ship had turned back and was proceeding with water in her hold to Liverpool. The message said no one was injured.

Washington, May 26.—Consul General Skinner at London cabled today: "The British Admiralty reports the American steamer Nebraskan torpedoed." He gave the same location as mentioned in the London dispatches and added that he had received no direct report.

Secretary Bryan said the State Department's information was too meagre to permit the forming of an opinion. He said a full report, with details of the attack, was expected soon.

Washington, May 26.—The status of the Nebraskan, under international law, brought out a variety of discussions today when news was received that the vessel was chartered to the White Star Line of the International Mercantile Marine.

Whether sunk by a mine or torpedo a claim for damages might raise a complicated question, it was said. If the Nebraskan was in the service of a British concern, according to previous discussion in such cases, she would be a lawful prize, liable to seizure and condemnation.

The Nebraskan was on her way home to fulfill a contract of her owners with the United States Navy Department to carry coal from Newport News to San Francisco. She was not under charter to the navy, but was to carry the coal as freight.

Washington, May 26.—Coming close on the Lusitania disaster the news that another American ship had been endangered aroused more than ordinary attention, but all officials were disposed to hear details before making comment.

Some officials could not understand why a ship bound for the United States in ballast, and therefore carrying no cargo, should have been endangered by a torpedo, and they considered it among the possibilities that the Nebraskan has been struck by a floating mine.

London, May 26.—The American steamer Nebraskan passed Queenstown this afternoon on her way back to Liverpool. She was proceeding under her own steam at eight knots an hour.

Rome, May 26.—Offensive operations, resulting in the occupation of Austrian territory all along the frontier from Lombardy to the Adriatic are claimed in an official statement issued tonight by the War Office. Italian troops have seized various towns in the Trentino and have forced their way through mountain defiles.

On the lower Isonzo attacks were continued to gain the line of the river. The Austrians are said to have retired, destroying bridges behind them.

Italian aviators bombarded Montebelluna, near the gulf of Trieste.

The report declares Austrian artillery opened fire on the Bay of Mistrina without results. On the Carinthia frontier mountain defiles were forced at the point of the bayonet.

Paris, May 26.—The Italian government today declared a blockade of all ports of the Austro-Hungarian coast.

Paris, May 26.—An official statement today says German attacks near Arras and the Lorette hills were repulsed after furious fighting. It says the German attacked with extreme violence.

Repeated German attempts to retake Angres failed. The report says the French have occupied almost entirely a position near Buval, which is being maintained under a violent fire.

Further gains are reported for the French near Arras and on the heights of Lorette.

Petrograd, May 26.—Although German activity continues on both sides of the San river between Jaroslavl and Przemyśl, Russians assert they now have the situation well in hand. They state that the German drives through Galicia and on the left side of the Vistula have lost their impetus and that the Russians are now ready to take the initiative.

Some observers believe the German check is due to necessity of bringing up fresh supplies of ammunition, after which their aggressive will resume its former intensity.

Between Przemyśl and the Dniester marshes the Russians already have begun a successful advance, capturing a number of small villages.

Berlin, May 26.—A War Office statement issued today says French attacks in the Lorette hills near Souchez, and at several other points were repulsed.

It declares that General von Machensen's attack in Galicia is progressing and a village was captured near Radymno. A crossing on the San river was also taken near this point, the report states. The booty in prisoners and war material is increased, according to the report.

U. S. INTEREST IN CHINA NOT PROFESSIONAL SAYS WILSON

By Associated Press.

Washington, May 26.—Deep interest in the future of China was expressed by President Wilson today in welcoming the commission of Chinese business men touring the United States to study commercial methods.

The president told them the interest of the people of the United States in China was not merely a commercial or a professional interest. Spokesmen for the commission told the president they brought greetings from the Chinese Republic to the president and people of the United States, and that they would endeavor to make their republic a real sister.

DUTCH LINER AND FREIGHTER COLLIDE

The "Ryndam," With 77 Passengers and Million Dollar Cargo Hits Norwegian Tramp "Cunco," and Both Vessels Are Badly Damaged—American Warships Hasten to Relief and Both Vessels Are On Way to New York.

By Associated Press.

New York, May 26.—The Dutch liner Ryndam, bound from New York for Rotterdam, with 77 passengers and a million dollar cargo, collided with the tramp freighter Joseph J. Cunco today off Nantucket Island. Although no lives were lost both vessels were reported to be badly damaged.

Passengers and part of the Ryndam's crew are being brought to New York on board the United States battleship South Carolina.

The Ryndam, conveyed by the Cunco and the battleships South Carolina, Texas and Louisiana was steaming at low speed from New York and at 10 o'clock she was 124 miles east of the Ambrose Channel until port was reached.

lightskip. The water was said to be rising rapidly in her hold.

The Ryndam's cargo consisted chiefly of foodstuffs. Only a few of the Ryndam's passengers were Americans. Wireless calls for assistance were answered by several steamers and United States battleships which were engaged in maneuvers in the neighborhood where the collision occurred.

The Cunco is a Norwegian vessel and carries a crew of about 20 men and no passengers. The liner's passengers were first transferred to the Cunco after the collision but later were taken on board the battleship.

Late messages from the Ryndam's captain declared she could hold out until port was reached.

ASQUITH STILL AT THE HELM

London, May 26.—The government announced the members of the new war cabinet through the official press bureau. The Liberals, as was supposed would be the case, remain in the majority, but many concessions have been made to the Unionists for the purpose of assuring harmony among the party leaders as well as among the people, while one post is assigned to a Labor member.

The ministry for the remainder of the war period—for it is not likely that its new membership will continue unaltered after a declaration of peace—will thus be constituted of 13 Liberals, 8 Unionists and 1 Labor member.

Of greatest importance, however, in the public mind, is the fact that Premier Asquith remains at the head of the government, that Earl Kitchener is retained as the secretary of state for war, though his responsibilities will hereafter be curtailed, and that Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty in the cabinet just dissolved, is practically shelved by being placed as chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster.

The duties which Earl Kitchener has heretofore borne without division are to be lessened, half of them going to David Lloyd-George, who will fill a portfolio especially created for the occasion and called the ministry of munitions.

The more important folios were filled as follows:

Prime minister and first lord of treasury, H. H. Asquith; chancellor of exchequer, Reginald McKenna; foreign secretary, Sir Edward Grey; first lord of the admiralty, Arthur J. Balfour.

BRITISH GIVE OUT STATEMENT

London, May 26.—To make it plain that there is no intention on the part of the British government to recede from any position taken with regard to the blockade or the shipment of goods, the war office issued the following statement with reference to the controversy over cotton:

"Arrangements with regard to the shipments of cotton and other articles of commerce were agreed upon between representatives of the American interests concerned. The United States was in no sense a party to these agreements and did not take part in the conference. The British government realizes that these unofficial arrangements do not involve the United States. They do not commit either government to any departure from the views already expressed in their official notes regarding the declaration of March 1 and the blockade policy adopted to give effect to it."

AS VIENNA VIEWS RAID

Vienna, May 26.—The following statement regarding the naval raid by Austrian warships on cities of the Adriatic coast of Italy was given out here: "During the naval action an Austrian aeroplane dropped four bombs near Venice. The arsenal there was set afire and seriously damaged. Near Porto Corsini there was a violent encounter in which the Austrian cruiser Novara, the destroyer Scharf, scheutze and a torpedo boat participated. Our losses were four killed and eight wounded on the Novara. The Italians lost ten to twenty men. Ancona was bombarded by the chief portion of our fleet, which caused considerable damage. Two steamers were sunk and the new wharf buildings were set afire. Near La Barletta, north of Bari, an Italian turbine destroyer was put out of action and surrendered. The crew as well as the commander and the other officers were made prisoners."

GERMAN REICHSTAG TO DISCUSS ITALY

Berlin, May 26.—The reichstag will meet on Friday to take up the war with Italy and to make provisions for carrying it on. In all likelihood the formal declaration of war will be made the same day. It is not considered as absolutely necessary that such a decree be issued, for German troops are with the Austrians now on the Italian frontier and will strike with them against Italy.

BRITISH ARE FORCED OUT OF TRENCHES

London, May 26.—Huge clouds of asphyxiating gases were thrown against the British lines east of Ypres by the Germans and the atmosphere was rendered so poisonous that a portion of the first line trenches had to be evacuated. Before the stifling fumes had been cleared away by a rising breeze the German forces had dashed in and so strongly occupied the deserted embankments that the allied forces have not yet been able to reoccupy them. But while the attack entailed certain losses of not very great importance, one fact of a highly encouraging nature was established. It is that over a considerable portion of the trenches engulfed in the asphyxiating gas the troops were able to withstand the suffocating atmosphere and retain their positions, despite a vigorous onslaught. This fact is brought out in a report from Field Marshal Sir John French and is taken by him to indicate that the methods devised for resisting poisonous gases will shortly prove entirely effectual.

CLOSE TO THE TURKS' TRENCHES

London, May 26.—The press bureau publishes an official report from Cairo regarding the joint operations in the Dardanelles as follows: "On May 21 the first French division made considerable progress and are now close to the Turkish trenches. On the 22nd the enemy made a determined attack on the left of the Indian brigade, and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon gained a temporary footing. But they were driven back with a loss of 500 Turks and a number of prisoners. On May 23 the Turks asked for and obtained a suspension of hostilities opposite the Australian and New Zealand army corps, to enable them to bury the Turkish dead close to our trenches. More than 3,000 Turks who were killed between the 18th and 21st were buried."

Italy and the War

Another European nation, prepared for war, has had war "forced" upon it. Italy has cast her lot with the allies in the great struggle and in doing so, will add materially to the force now opposing the Teutonic alliance.

The Italian navy is well equipped and is one of the large navies of the world. The army too is numerically strong and the artillery is unexcelled.

It is doubtful, unless there is a decided change in the method of warfare, if the Italian navy will be of much assistance to the allies. The war so far has been one wherein naval forces are practically useless except as commerce destroyers and blockade forces.

Italy's main assistance to the allied forces should be in the campaign to open the Dardanelles and it is more than likely that the greater part of the offensive land campaign by the fresh Italian troops will be directed against the German, Austrian and Turkish forces now holding the gateway to Russia against the attacks of the allied forces.

Russia has been unable to render that assistance to the allies which was expected, because of a shortage of arms and ammunition. The Czar's forces are without limit in numbers, they have horses and provisions in plenty and that they are not lacking in courage and ability is proven by the success of their campaign in Poland and East Prussia.

The disastrous defeat of the Russians and the retreat from dearly-bought positions in Poland is attributable to the shortage of arms and ammunition. The distance across Siberia from the coast of Manchuria is too long and the transportation facilities too primitive to carry the vast quantities of arms and ammunition which the Russian army requires to carry to success its offensive campaign on the east front of battle.

The only solution of this one big problem seems to be the forcing of the Dardanelles and thus securing the entrance to Russia from the world which her necessities and the necessities of the allies require. A long campaign has demonstrated that the allied fleet must have the assistance of the land forces the stronghold of Germany and Turkey is to be captured.

Italy is ideally located to rush her armies to that much needed point. With Italy arrayed against them, the only avenue of communication to the outside world, save one, is closed to Germany and Austria.

The importance of Italy's entrance into the war should not be underestimated. Strategically the allies have gained important territory, to say nothing of the fighting force which Italy's co-operation will add. It is not likely that the forces of King Victor Emanuel will take part in the fighting in Flanders or Poland. The troops will be used to block the outlet to the Mediterranean and to assist in the offensive in the land operations about the Dardanelles, in all probability.

The New Depot Movement

The meeting, last week, of the local business men and the Baltimore & Ohio railroad officials and the meeting, this week, of the local business men with the officials of the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton railroad is not discouraging to those of our citizens who want for and believe Washington is entitled to, better passenger depot accommodations.

This city is the best point from a business standpoint, and that is the only standpoint which appeals to railroad officials, on the four railroads that pass through the city, barring only the terminal stations.

The two meetings resulted in bringing railroad officials and local business men into closer touch with each other and, if there is any such thing as a sympathetic chord in business, the meetings must have tuned up that chord. Washington certainly is entitled to sympathy on account of her depot accommodations, or rather the lack of them.

How much progress the two meetings resulted in making along the road to better conditions is of course a problem which time only can answer. The distinguished visitors who have met with our citizens have not, and perhaps that is unfortunate too, the last word to say in the subject matter of the discussions last week and this. They are, however, men whose active and earnest co-operation our citizens must receive before favorable action is taken by the final authorities.

At any rate officials and citizens became acquainted with each other and talked over needs and remedies. Our citizens were glad to entertain their visitors and it is certain that the visitors carried away with them, guaranteeing at least a friendly feeling and a desire to help and that is of some considerable importance.

The benefits which follow such meetings and greetings are always indirect but, in a fair percentage of cases, certain.

The meetings, if nothing else, served to break the ice and open up and establish a line of communication without which no campaign can succeed.

Certain it is that this is a good start toward the long sought goal and may be considered a real beginning of a real earnest campaign.

Poetry For Today

THE FUTURE OF WAR.

Not with cannon huge and fearsome.

Not with rifles in the trench

Will we battle in the future,

But with gases full of stench.

Not with shrapnel nor with Maxims

Will we butcher, slay, or beat,

But with tender hearts we'll spray

Them

Thick with ether till they sleep.

There will be no cries of anguish

And no rivers running red,

When the chloroforming snipers

Get their fellows in the head.

Forward, then, the charging squad-

rons,

Not amid the battle's roar,

But with squirt-guns full of chlorine

Rake the foemen aft and fore!

Charge, for King and so forth, so

forth,

Firing mustard up the slope!

Charge—with needles hypodermic—

Shoot your neighbor full of dope.

Fumes of burning shoes and rubbers,

Pepper, garlic, and of hay,

Quickly clear the mines and trenches

Help to win the glorious day.

Thousands strew the scene of battle,

Anesthesia's victims they,

Snoring loudly as they slumber,

Resting meanwhile from the fray.

Cannon-makers out of business,

Chemicals producing now—

Knockout drops instead of bullets—

Danger lurks not in a row.

Thus the nations all can pleasure

In a war that's safe and sane,

Save for some poor sleepy victim,

Who, in falling, gets a sprain.

Porto Rico's Sugar.

The important part played by the sugar industry in the material welfare of Porto Rico is shown by the figures of exports. Out of a total valuation of exports amounting to $43,000,

000 during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, sugar alone constituted over $20,000,000. This was the lowest sum realized for sugar exports in five years.

Under normal conditions sugar constitutes two-thirds the total value of all exports.

Government Statistics Show Growth of Railroad Investment.

Data filed with the interstate commerce commission at Washington shows that in the fiscal year 1914 the railroads in the middle west increased their investment in road and equipment by $49,964,000. Yet such was the reduction in earnings and the increase in expenses, that the net operating revenue was less by $35,000,000 than for the previous year and was the smallest since 1905. The interstate commerce commission, which has spent about four years investigating freight rates, and which is never accused of showing favoritism to the carriers, finds that one of the reasons why the railroads are not making both ends meet is because passenger rates, fixed by states in the middle west, are too low. Do we want to crush the life out of the railroads because some of the railroads have not always played fair? Or do we want them to receive a living wage so they can continue to improve service and keep out of the bankruptcy courts? Nothing is to be gained by persecution.

We are all too intimately affected by anything that happens to our railroads for that. A broad-minded policy would be to grant the request for the one-half cent increase in view of the fact that the cut of 33 1-3 per cent was an experiment that has beyond doubt proven disastrous not only to the railroads, but to practically everyone.

Lord Salisbury's Joke.

Count Miyatovich, former Servian minister, told in London the story of a meeting he once had with the late

Lord Salisbury. "He was a brilliant man and a great statesman," he said.

"A little cynical, he never lost an opportunity of leaving a laugh at one's expense, but in his laugh there was never a trace of any malice. In the interview I recounted my nation's history, when he seemed a little bored.

At the end Lord Salisbury dryly remarked: 'I thank you, minister. Now

I know what I did not know before—that you have a brilliant history. But, my dear friend, it would have been much better for the Serbs if you had a less brilliant history and a port on the Adriatic.'"

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Adenoids and a Husky Voice.

Persistent hoarseness or huskiness in very young children is a common symptom of adenoids,

obstructing the entrance of air through the nose. If the husky voice exists with mouth breathing it is a positive sign of obstructions within the nose. The early removal of the adenoids is almost always advisable. Children who are habitual mouth

breathers, both by day and night, never sleep well at night. Such children become languid, restless and prone oftentimes to melancholy. Mouth breathers soon acquire a dull expression—the face is stupid and often semilidiotic in expression.

In a large number of cases the hearing becomes impaired. Where the mouth breathing has existed since infancy there is in other children often a marked deformity of the chest. These growths often produce anaemia and general malnutrition owing to the constant interference with sleep and obstruction to respiration.

Operation is the best treatment for children suffering from adenoids. There is practically no danger. The improvement

after the operation is in proportion to the severity of the previous symptoms. The respiration is freer, the sleep becomes quiet, the mouth is soon habitually closed, the voice improves, and the benefit to the general health is in a short time apparent. The whole appearance of the child is often transformed in a few months.

YOUTH BADLY INJURED WHEN HORSE RUNS OFF

Henry Shoop, the 18-year-old son of H. C. Shoop, was seriously injured near the B. & O. station at noon Wednesday, when the horse he was driving, attached to the Wells Fargo express wagon, ran away and the heavy wagon passed over him.

The young man, who for sometime has been driving one of the Wells Fargo wagons, is said to have been standing near the wagon when the horse started, and was knocked down and the wagon struck him in such a way that his jaw was dislocated and fractured. Besides the dislocation and fracture he sustained a number of ugly bruises and painful cuts.

He was removed to the office of Dr. Brock and later transferred to the Fayette Hospital, where he will remain for the time being.

After running over the young man the horse continued up the railroad track at a mad gallop, damaging the wagon.

YOUNG MAN DIES IN COLUMBUS PRISON

Roy Lohr, formerly of Bloomingburg, died in Columbus Tuesday, and his remains were shipped to Bloomingburg Wednesday morning and funeral services will be held at two o'clock Thursday afternoon, followed by interment in the Bloomingburg cemetery.

The shocking circumstances surrounding his death are given by the State Journal, as follows:

"Roy Lohr, aged 30, a groceryman who lived at 2432 West Broad street, died yesterday in a padded cell at the city prison, presumably from alcoholism and morphinism. Lohr is said to have been a user of morphine, and he had been drinking heavily when arrested. Because of violence, he was placed in the padded cell."

MUCH LIVE STOCK KILLED BY STORM

During the storm of Tuesday night quite a little damage was done by the lightning, and quite a number of horses and cattle were killed.

Mr. Isaac Corey, of south of Good Hope, seems to have been the heaviest loser, three valuable draft mares being killed. He had very little insurance on them.

Lewis Parrett, of near Good Hope, also lost a valuable mare, and Darlington Brothers, south of town, lost two head of cattle.

L. R. Rowe, of this city, has leased the Will Sheridan business room in Staunton and early next week will open a new general store.

He is now busy preparing for the opening. Frank Minnick, who has been engaged in business in Staunton for several years, is selling out to move to Good Hope and conduct a garage.

REMAINS BROUGHT HERE FOR BURIAL

Messrs W. W. Fenner and Chas. Griffith, of this city, and Mr. A. A. Fenner, of Hillsboro, went to Columbus Wednesday morning to accompany to this city the remains of Fay Fenner, aged 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fenner, of Columbus.

The child died Tuesday morning after a few months' illness, death being due to heart trouble. Short funeral services were held at the Fenner home in Columbus and the remains were shipped to this city on the 3:33 B. & O. train and taken to the local cemetery where interment was made. A large number of relatives and friends accompanied the remains.

Mrs. Edgar Fenner is a daughter of the late Jacob Zimmerman and Mr. Fenner is a brother to Mr. W. W. Fenner.

Nineteen graduates, a prepossessing class of stalwart young men and winsome girls, received diplomas as the final proof of their accomplished work.

The graduates were Winifred Ellis, Blanche Matthews, Louise Blessing, Ethel Woodruff, Lucile Scott, Lorie French, Donald Zimmerman, Grace Wood, Lowell Straley, Ellen Dill, Morna Beatty, Harold Barnes, Anna Horney, Ruth Coe, Loren Wilson, Willard Kirk, Harry Bush, Roy Young, Roy Dill.

A masterly class address on the subject, "From Beneficiaries to Benefactors," was delivered by Dr. H. D. Minnick, of the Normal department of Miami university.

Mr. J. B. Davis, president of the board of education, presented the diplomas, with congratulatory remarks to the graduates.

Throughout the program Price's orchestra furnished splendid music.

If ever the illustrious baseball bug of Washington C. H. got a real stiff workout its this week. With all kinds of things happening in a bunch, and good things, the official dope insect fairly whistles.

The first thing of importance on the tape is the closing of a contract with Wilmington by Manager Noon of the Athletics for a series of six games to be played in June, July and August, as follows: At Wilmington—June 6, July 11, August 8; at Washington—June 20, July 25 and August 22.

RAILROADS IN ARGENTINA.

Run Under Rules Framed by a Strict Government Commission.

Argentina has a commission which is in some respects even more powerful than the interstate commerce commission. The direction general de ferrocarriles, as it is named, prescribes the number of trains to be run and insists on the number of coaches. Every night train must carry a certain number of sleeping cars, and dining cars, or restaurant cars, as they are known in Argentina, are obligatory on runs of certain distance. Every train is obliged to carry a letter box, and recently the railroads have been squeezed into carrying the mails for nothing.

A medicine chest, a stretcher and a bicycle—this last to establish quick communication with the nearest station in case of an accident—are compulsory on every passenger train.

Every passenger coach is disinfected each month, and the precautions for preserving the cleanliness of sleeping cars are probably the most thorough in the world.

No time table can be altered without the sanction of the director general and at least two months in advance of their taking effect. If trains stop at stations not scheduled a heavy fine is imposed, and all late trains must be reported to the government, with the reason for being delayed.—New York Tribune.

GERMS ON SALADS.

A Simple Method by Which All Danger May Be Avoided.

Drs. Loir and Legagneux of Paris tested vinegar as a destroyer of the germs of typhoid fever. That they are killed by a mixture of wine and water in equal parts has long been known. These investigators prove now that twenty grams of vinegar to a liter of water kill the typhoid bacillus in an hour and five minutes.

"From this," writes the Paris correspondent of the London Lancet, "a

Last but not least, Manager Noon received a special Wednesday from Captain Hungeling of the Dayton Reserves, stating that the latter would be pleased to sign up with the Athletics on terms offered and will be here Sunday to begin work behind the bat for Washington.

Hungeling was here with the Reserves several weeks ago and is one of the best backstops that has performed in Washington for some time, and a slugger as well.

The signing of Hungeling comes as a relief to Hagerty who has been having difficulty behind the bat lately because of his eyes. Stan has been "stickin' 'er out" like a good soldier though, and is certainly entitled to the first base job that will fall his lot.

Considerable interest centers about the games scheduled for Sunday and Monday with the Bates Pirates of Columbus. The Pirates come here with a rep. They defeated the Chillicothe State Leaguers not long ago, in an exhibition game, and a week ago were holding out a claim that they had not been defeated this season.

The Washington lineup and batting order for Sunday and Monday will be as follows: Mobley, rf; Dorsay, ss; Rannels, 2b; Noon, lf; Hungeling, c; Reed, 3b; Cotterill, Linson, p; Hagerty, 1b; Jones cf.

practical inference may be drawn concerning salads. After washing the salad as usual, detaching each leaf, it should be put into water acidulated with ten grams of vinegar to the liter and remain immersed in this liquid for about an hour and a quarter. All vegetables ordinarily eaten uncooked may be subjected without any inconvenience to the same process."

A liter is equivalent to about a quart and ten grams are equivalent to about a third of an ounce. So if lettuce or other greens for salad be placed in water to which about one-third of an ounce of vinegar has been added and be left for about an hour and a quarter all danger of typhoid fever will be removed.

The Centipede.

The centipede was formerly a resident of the southern part of this country, but it has gradually worked its way to the north, so that now it is quite common in nearly every portion of the country. It thrives best in damp and warm places and has its redeeming feature in that it catches and destroys many of the domestic pests we are well rid of. Its method of catching an insect seems to be to spring over it, inclosing and caging it with its many legs. The belief occasionally met with that the centipede feeds on household goods and woolsens or other clothing is without foundation. On the other hand, the bite of this creature is undoubtedly more or less poisonous, the effect depending on the susceptibility of the patient.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

NOBEL'S GREAT GIFT.

Yearly Prizes That Come From the Fund He Left to Posterity.

Alfred B. Nobel, the Swedish scientist and inventor of dynamite, died in 1896, leaving his fortune, which was estimated at $9,000,000, to the founding of a fund of which the interest should be yearly given as prizes to those persons who had during the year contributed most to "the good of humanity." The interest is divided in five equal shares, awarded as follows:

"One to the person who in the domain of physics has made the most important discovery or invention, one to the person who has made the most important chemical discovery or invention, one to the person who has made the most important discovery in the domain of medicine or physiology, one to the person who in literature has provided the most excellent work of an idealistic tendency and one to the person who has worked most or best for the fraternization of nations and the abolition or reduction of standing armies and the calling and propagating of peace congresses."

The value of each prize is, on an average $50,000. The awards for physics and chemistry are given by the Swedish Academy of Science, that for physiological or medical work by the Caroline institute (the faculty of medicine in Stockholm), that for literature by the Swedish Academy of Stockholm and the peace prize by a committee of five persons elected by the Norwegian storting.—Philadelphia Press.

SIX NURSES FROM FAYETTE HOSPITAL RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES WERE HELD IN PRESENCE OF LARGE CROWD IN HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM LAST NIGHT AND ENJOYABLE RECEPTION FOLLOWS — MASTERLY CLASS ADDRESS IS DELIVERED BY REV. ROSS — COMMENCEMENT FIRST OF KIND EVER HELD IN CITY.

A thoroughly delightful and high-interesting event of Tuesday evening was the first annual commencement exercises of the Fayette Hospital Training School for Nurses, held at the High school auditorium, where six charming and highly talented young women who have studied under the careful direction of Miss Florence Schryver, Superintendent of Nurses of the Fayette Hospital, were awarded their diplomas. A large audience attended the exercises.

The stage was elaborately decorated with potted plants and cut flowers and the class colors of white and blue were attractively carried out. Miss Schryver and the six graduates, Misses Mary Rinehart, Jane Lillian Ferguson, Ethel Jones, Oma Park and Elizabeth Jones, were dressed in pure white and sat well forward on the stage, with the undergraduates seated immediately behind them and a half score or more of local physicians seated in a semi-circle back of the group.

Included with the physicians was L. M. McFadden, founder and owner of the Fayette Hospital which was so admirably filled a long felt need.

Rev. A. W. West, of the First Baptist church, presided and the invocation was pronounced by Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage, of the First Presbyterian church. A number of charming selections were rendered by Messrs Kneisley and Whelpley and the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs of the Washington High School, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Sheen, contributed several splendid numbers. The children's chorus also received a round of applause.

The class address was a masterly one, delivered by Rev. F. E. Ross, of Grace M. E. church, who spoke on "The Nurse—the High Priestess of Humanity." and in his address Rev. Ross paid marked tribute to those who devote their time to the sick and afflicted and are willing to undergo any hardship for the relief of suffering humanity.

Rev. Ross spoke for more than a half hour and the address was pronounced one of the most pleasing and appropriate commencement addresses ever given in the city.

The diplomas were presented to the graduates by Supt Wm. McClain, whose remarks were charmingly adapted to the occasion.

Rev. A. W. West presented the class pins and Rev. Gage pronounced the benediction.

Following the commencement a reception was held at the Nurses' home on North street. It was attended by a large number, many unable to get in the house and all eager to extend congratulations to the coterie of attractive young graduates, receiving with Miss Florence Schryver, Supt. of Nurses.

Whelpley and Kneisley furnished delightful music and social features were a pleasurable addenda to the successful first commencement under the auspices of the Fayette Hospital.

simple. One horse can draw it, and a boy drive and tend it at the same time. It gathers the seed from the ripening heads and sacks it. The grass, for pasture purposes, is not injured and the seed is a clear gain. Mr. Elliot thinks Madison county blue grass ideal and equal to that of Kentucky. He says two counties in that state and one in Missouri produce the bulk of the crop of seed and have grown rich thereby—London Democrat.

On the Sea.

From all antiquity and in all ages men have gone down to the sea in ships and plowed the main. There is a fascination about the ocean that never grows old, and the terrors that encompass the waste of waters seem but to add to its attractions. Perhaps this arises from the fact that the ocean covers the only free land on the globe. The sailor on his humble bark has an equal right of way with the mighty steamship; he pays no rent and calls no man master. Once he touches land he must bow to the law of King This or Queen That, but on the high seas he can roam without let or hindrance and owes allegiance to no ruler but nature. The sailor leads a hard and perilous life and has the single boon of freedom to compensate for risk and privation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The annual average cost of keeping one of our battleships in commission is $828,778 and of a submarine $31,161. And the little one can put the big one out of commission in a few seconds at a cost of $500.

"A Man is as Old as He Feels."
The well known saying, "A man is as old as he feels," is pure Liverpoolian, and legal at that. During the trial of a breach of promise case there arose some argument as to the desirability of a man of forty-nine marrying a girl of twenty, whereupon the judge delivered the famous epigram. He even went one better, for, when counsel for the defense argued that the lady had had a lucky escape from marrying such a man as his client, the witty judge observed: "What the woman loses is the man she thinks him to be."—Liverpool Post.

Deep Sea Diving.
Diving with the aid of artificial mechanism is at least 1,000 years older than the Christian religion. Homer compared the fall of Hector's charioteer to the descent of an oyster diver. Aristotle mentioned a diving apparatus, and, while Alexander the Great had no submarines, still he ordered divers to destroy the underwater defenses of Tyre. Later on Livy told about treasures being recovered from sunken ships by divers. So it appears that our old world has made but slight progress in penetrating the depths of the sea, which in some places is six miles deep.—Philadelphia Ledger.

ITALY AND AUSTRIANS BEGIN WAR

Rome, May 26.—Italian troops, advancing on a front of about thirty-five miles, have entered Austrian territory and occupied several towns near the border. The Austrians made slight resistance, retiring evidently to their strongly fortified lines.

The war office tells of the occupation of the heights between the Insonzo and the Judrio, and the capture of the town of Caporetto, in that region. These heights extend over a distance of about twenty miles.

The rapid stroke of the Italian army bespeaks a long preparation, bearing out what the press of the allied countries contended months ago, that Italy would throw in her lot with the entente and was only waiting for an opportune time.

Baron Macchio, the Austrian ambassador, and Prince Schoenburg-Hartenstein, the Austrian envoy to the vatican, went in separate automobiles to the station and left by special train. Prince Von Buelow and Dr. Von Muehlberg, the Prussian envoy to the holy see, and the Bavarian minister to the quirinal and his colleague accredited to the vatican left ten minutes later. The staffs of the embassies and legations accompanied their respective chiefs. The departure of the diplomats was not marked by the slightest untoward incident.

It is expected that Pope Benedict will at once make two important pronouncements, one declaring that the neutrality of the vatican is unimpaired by Italy's declaration of war, the other declaring that there is no incompatibility between the neutrality of the police and loyalty and patriotism on the part of Italian Catholics. The relations between the vatican and the Italian government already begin to show a great improvement on account of the war.

The inhabitants of the village of Tivoli, outside Rome, attempted to storm the historic Villa d'Este, which belonged to the late Archduke Francis Ferdinand. The crowd pulled down the Austrian coat of arms over the entrance and hoisted the Italian flag

VILLA MEETS THIRD DEFEAT

El Paso, Tex., May 26.—General Villa has met his third defeat at the hands of General Obregon since the latter began advancing into Villa's territory along the Mexican Central railroad. This is admitted in Villa circles, and it is reported that the Villa troops are retiring again on Aguas Calientes to make another stand. The total losses of the two armies in the fighting of the last three days are said to be above 3,000.

General Obregon is now entrenched nine kilometers south of Leon, according to Carranza advices. This supplements the official reports of Obregon, which stated that he had defeated the Villistas in the three days' battle and had effected an important advance.

PLACES BLAME ON AUSTRIANS

Washington, May 26.—Italy finds in Austria-Hungary's harsh action towards Servia last summer, without prior consultation with Italy, the basis for her declaration of war against the dual empire, according to the official presentation of Italy's case handed to Secretary Bryan by Count Cellere, the Italian ambassador. By its attack on Servia, the Italian government says, Austria severed the triple alliance with its own hands.

Failing to obtain through diplomatic circles the satisfaction of her territorial and national aspiration, Italy announces in her note that a declaration of war was the only means of safeguarding her position in Europe.

CATARACT OF THE EYE.

It May Come at Any Time of Life, and Its Goal Is Blindness.

Cataract is an opacity of the crystalline lens caused by interference with its nutrition. As the rays of light cannot penetrate this opaque matter it results in blindness. A cataract may come at any time of life, but is most apt to come in old age, when senile changes take place in all parts of the body.

A cataract may be caused by changes in the eye before birth. Children are born with a cataract. It may be caused by changes during childhood, by disease or injury, by excessive and persistent light and heat and by many other causes. Glassblowers are subject to it. X ray workers, sufferers from diabetes and many others. It may be a primary disease or it may be secondary to other diseases. It is often very successfully treated by operation, particularly in the aged, the lens or lens and its capsule being removed. The development of cataract is sometimes very rapid, especially after injury, but in the aged it takes place slowly, sometimes requiring years before blindness results. The operation is not usually done until the cataract is mature or ripe. An earlier operation frequently militates against a successful result.—Philadelphia Record.

DEGREES OF COOKING.

What Is Meant by Rare, Medium and Well Done Meat.

Perhaps a word may be said about the degree of cooking, as indicated by the words rare, medium and well done, used in reference to the cooking of meat.

Some people interpret "rare" as meaning meat seared a little on the outside, but with the whole interior raw. This is far from a correct interpretation. The albumen should be coagulated, the fibers really cooked, but the juice may be yet red or pink. In "medium" there is still some pink left in the meat, though the red color has left the juice, while well done means no pink color in either juice or fiber, but not the stringy, overcooked, tasteless product so often served as "well done" meat.

The quantity and kind of meat used by any family depend upon its living habits, its appreciation of food values and the money available for food. The excessive use of meat means an unwise expenditure of money as well as an unnecessary tax upon the kidneys and liver, but in any case the preparation of it is a most important factor.—Woman's World.

LOCKS OR SEA LEVEL.

The Wisdom That Was Shown in Building the Panama Waterway.

The slides in the Panama canal have led some persons to say that it was a mistake not to build a sea level canal. In discussing that criticism Mr. Charles Whiting Baker, editor of the Engineering News, recently said that the few engineers who urged a sea level canal now dislike to be reminded of the fact.

“Bad as the slides are and costly as the work of cleaning them away is proving to be,” said Mr. Baker, “they would be vastly greater if the canal at Culebra cut were made eighty-five feet deeper, as it would have to be in order to lower the canal to sea level. But even that is not the worst. In a sea level canal there would be slides to contend with not only in the nine mile long Culebra cut, but all the way across the isthmus—in the deep morasses along the lower Chagres river, for example, where in some places the soft mud is a hundred feet deep. When at Panama I myself saw a slide move into the cut that was being made for the Gatun locks foundation, in which half an acre or so of soft ground flowed down the slope like stiff molasses.

“We owe a great debt of gratitude for our correct choice to President Taft, President Roosevelt, Colonel Goethals and the late Alfred Noble and other great engineers, who threw all the weight of their influence in favor of a lock canal. There is no dissent in the engineering profession from this assertion, and the public ought also to understand it.”

New Found Asphalt Bed.

An asphalt bed which seems practically inexhaustible is now being developed commercially in Leyte province, in the Philippine Islands. The bed lies near the shore line at Tacloban, at which port ships can anchor and take on cargo of the asphalt from lighters loaded at the mines, with practically no overland transportation. The deposits also contain oil of a high grade. The asphalt is almost pure near the surface and is exceptionally pure at greater depths. The oil deposits—evidenced by oil flowing with water from a spring—contain oil pure enough to be used by the natives for illuminating purposes.

Various Methods Of Killing the Noxious Fly

INSECT powder burnt in a house stupefies flies until they may be swept up and destroyed, states the report issued by the health board of the southern state. Twenty drops of carbolic acid put on a hot shovel or other hot iron create a vapor that kills flies, making a simple and effective remedy.

Another remedy which for all purposes probably has no equal is a solution of a teaspoonful of formaldehyde and sweetened water in an open dish. This mixture should not be placed within the reach of children. Sticky fly paper, fly traps and wire paddles, or swatters, help to lessen the number of the pests.

The swatter is expected to play a big part in the warfare on the insects this summer, as it is endorsed by all the municipal health boards which have considered the problem of how to eliminate the disease spreaders.

What this device is capable of accomplishing can be appreciated when one takes into consideration the wonderful reproductive capacity of the fly. It takes ten or twelve days for the fly's eggs to develop, which means that a dozen generations can be born in a single season.

Swatters will not make possible extinction of the fly tribe, for the only way to exterminate the pests is to destroy their feeding and breeding places, but if used to any extent they will prevent the development of trillions of the insects during the course of a season.

A Shot That Made Trouble.

An odd incident happened in the then Danish West Indies in the last century that nearly caused serious international complications. An American marksman, paying a visit to Charlotte Amalia, amused the governor by an exhibition of his skill with the rifle. Sitting on the veranda of the government house, he said that he could cut with a bullet the signal halyards on the flagstaff of the fort and lower the Danish standard to the ground. As the lines were almost invisible in the distance the governor was willing to bet that he could not do it. The shot rang out, and the flag fell. Presently a horseman dashed up, informing the governor that some one had fired on the flag. There was great excitement. The governor, none too popular, it seems, with the military, ruined his political future by admitting that the affair was a joke in which he conspired. Report being sent to Copenhagen, highly colored, of course, by the commandant, his excellency was summarily removed.

Dandelions.

The dandelion is an efficient plant. It is most excellently adapted to its job of keeping alive and spreading itself over the face of the earth. Except in early spring its leaves are too bitter to be eaten by man or by animals. They lie flat on the earth so that grazing beasts may tread on them without killing the plant. The roots take strong hold. The length of the elastic stem which bears up the blossom is determined by the height of the other vegetation in which the dandelion finds itself. On a close cropped lawn the dandelion's stem is stubby; in tall grass it reaches up toward the sun. Its seeds fly lightly and far on every breeze. The dandelion will raise a series of seed crops extending up almost to the first snowfall. — Detroit News.

The Gypsies.

The origin of the people known as gypsies remains largely a mystery. Egypt, India, Persia and Arabia have in turn been pointed out as their original country, but there is little definite knowledge on the subject. The weight of evidence is in favor of their having originated in India. They first appeared in Europe about 1400 and from the Danube region spread all over the continent, appearing in England about 1520.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the “keynote” of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a “dark brown mouth” now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Seven Seas.

The phrase "the seven seas" has been current for some time—was so current when Kipling universalized it twenty years ago—to denote all the great waters of the earth. Its use divides into seven parts: the "tripartite ocean" (the Atlantic, Pacific and Indian oceans) as the north and south Atlantic, the north and south Pacific, the Indian, the Arctic and the Antarctic oceans. It is interesting to note that Roman Italy had its "seven seas," the chain of salt lagoons about the mouth of the Po, separated from the Adriatic by strips of sand or embankments. The lagoons were in ancient days much more extensive than now, and the "Septem Mares" afforded a continuous means of internal navigation from Ravenna to Altinum.—New York Times.

FIGHTING IN FANCY DRESS.

One English Troop Used to Be Called the Golden Goldfinches.

Dandies were much in evidence in the Peninsular war, and an officer of the famous Light division has recorded how some of the officers were "rigged out in all the colors of the rainbow. Some had gray bridled coats, others brown; some again liked blue, and the comical appearance of a number of infantry officers loaded with leather bottoms to their pantaloons and huge chains suspended from the side buttons was amusing enough.

The "cut down" hat, exactly a span in height, was another rage. This burlesque on a chapeau was usually topped by some extraordinary looking feather."

The Duke of Wellington, however, never troubled about what his officers wore if only they brought their men intact into the firing line with sixty rounds of ammunition apiece, and one of the chaplains, known as "The Fighting Parson," always wore a red Hussar jacket, while during the battle of Victoria General Pictou wore, instead of the usual cocked hat, a round and very old hat and carried "a huge white umbrella lined with green."

But it is doubtful if any regiment has ever been dressed more strangely than the old Portsea volunteers, who in 1797 wore gold and scarlet cords, golden rosettes, feathers, cockades, white waistcoats, "gold wings" on "frilled skirts, largely figured." Hence their nickname, "The Golden Goldfinches."—London Tit-Bits.

Under-Sea Craft Torpedoes Another American Steamer

Gravity of Tension Existing Between America and Germany Is Increased By Attack Upon U. S. Steamship, Nebraskan, Which Is Seriously Damaged But Not Sunk.

STATE DEPARTMENT AWAITS FULL INFORMATION REGARDING OUTRAGE

Italians Make Substantial Gains at Various Points and Blockade of Austrian Ports Is Declared—French Claim Successes and Russ Report Situation in Galicia Now Well in Hand—Germany Disputes Russ Claims.

By Associated Press.
London, May 26.—The American steamer Nebraskan, Captain Green, from Liverpool May 24 for Delaware breakwater, was torpedoed yesterday by a submarine at a point 40 miles west-southwest of Fastnet, off the south coast of Ireland. The sea was calm at the time. The crew at once took to the boats and stood by the steamer.

It was soon ascertained that the Nebraskan had not been seriously damaged. She had been struck forward and her four holes were full of water. The crew returned on board and got the vessel under way. No lives were lost among the crew. The Nebraskan did not carry any passengers.

The foregoing information was received today by the British Admiralty in London and it was at once communicated to the American Embassy.

Immediately after she was struck the Nebraskan began calling for help by wireless. Browhead received the wireless communication at 9 a. m. yesterday from Crookhaven.

A message to Lloyds from Kinsale Island says that the Nebraskan passed that point at 11 o'clock this morning, apparently bound for Queenstown. She was down at the bows, proceeding under her own steam and flying the signal "I am not under control."

The Nebraskan is owned by the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company of New York, and is of 2,925 tons register. She left New York on her eastward trip May 7, for Liverpool, arriving May 19. She was bound home in ballast.

The cable of the vessel had received a cable message from her captain saying that the Nebraskan was struck by either a mine or a torpedo, and that the ship had turned back and was proceeding with water in her hold to Liverpool. The message said no one was injured.

Washington, May 26.—Consul General Skinner at London cabled today: "The British Admiralty reports the American steamer Nebraskan torpedoed." He gave the same location as mentioned in the London dispatches and added that he had received no direct report.

Secretary Bryan said the State Department's information was too meagre to permit the forming of an opinion. He said a full report, with details of the attack, was expected soon.

Washington, May 26.—The status of the Nebraskan, under international law, brought out a variety of discussions today when news was received that the vessel was chartered

to the White Star Line of the International Mercantile Marine.

Whether sunk by a mine or torpedo a claim for damages might raise a complicated question, it was said. If the Nebraskan was in the service of a British concern, according to previous discussion in such cases, she would be a lawful prize, liable to seizure and condemnation.

The Nebraskan was on her way home to fulfill a contract of her owners with the United States Navy Department to carry coal from Newport News to San Francisco. She was not under charter to the navy, but was to carry the coal as freight.

Washington, May 26.—Coming close on the Lusitania disaster the news that another American ship had been endangered aroused more than ordinary attention, but all officials were disposed to hear details before making comment.

Some officials could not understand why a ship bound for the United States in ballast, and therefore carrying no cargo, should have been endangered by a torpedo, and they considered it among the possibilities that the Nebraskan has been struck by a floating mine.

London, May 26.—The American steamer Nebraskan passed Queenstown this afternoon on her way back to Liverpool. She was proceeding under her own steam at eight knots an hour.

PRINCE VON BUELOW

German Envoy to Rome, Who Has Departed From Italy.

Rome, May 26.—Offensive operations, resulting in the occupation of Austrian territory all along the frontier from Lombardy to the Adriatic are claimed in an official statement issued tonight by the War Office. Italian troops have seized various towns in the Trentino and have forced their way through mountain defiles.

On the lower Isonzo attacks were continued to gain the line of the river. The Austrians are said to have retired, destroying bridges behind them.

Italian aviators bombarded Montalcene, near the gulf of Trieste.

The report declares Austrian artillery opened fire on the Bay of Mistrina without results. On the Carinthia frontier mountain defiles were forced at the point of the bayonet.

Paris, May 26.—The Italian government today declared a blockade of all ports of the Austro-Hungarian coast.

Paris, May 26.—An official statement today says German attacks near Arras and the Lorette hills were repulsed after furious fighting. It says the German attacked with extreme violence.

Repeated German attempts to retake Angres failed. The report says the French have occupied almost entirely a position near Buval, which is being maintained under a violent fire.

Further gains are reported for the French near Arras and on the heights of Lorette.

Petrograd, May 26.—Although German activity continues on both sides of the San river between Jaroslau and Przemysl, Russians assert they now have the situation well in hand. They state that the German drives through Galicia and on the left side of the Vistula have lost their impetus and that the Russians are now ready to take the initiative.

Some observers believe the German check is due to necessity of bringing up fresh supplies of ammunition, after which their aggressive will resume its former intensity.

Between Przemysl and the Dniester marshes the Russians already have begun a successful advance, capturing a number of small villages.

Berlin, May 26.—A War Office statement issued today says French attacks in the Lorette hills near Souchez, and at several other points were repulsed.

It declares that General von Machensen's attack in Galicia is progressing and a village was captured near Radymno. A crossing on the San river was also taken near this point, the report states. The booty in prisoners and war material is increased, according to the report.

U. S. INTEREST IN CHINA NOT PROFESSIONAL SAYS WILSON

By Associated Press.

Washington, May 26.—Deep interest in the future of China was expressed by President Wilson today in welcoming the commission of Chinese business men touring the United States to study commercial methods.

The president told them the interest of the people of the United States in China was not merely a commercial or a professional interest. Spokesmen for the commission told the president they brought greetings from the Chinese Republic to the president and people of the United States, and that they would endeavor to make their republic a real sister.

DUTCH LINER AND FREIGHTER COLLIDE

The "Ryndam," With 77 Passengers and Million Dollar Cargo Hits Norwegian Tramp "Cuneo," and Both Vessels Are Badly Damaged—American Warships Hasten to Relief and Both Vessels Are On Way to New York.

By Associated Press.

New York, May 26.—The Dutch liner Ryndam, bound from New York for Rotterdam, with 77 passengers and a million dollar cargo, collided with the tramp freighter Joseph J. Cuneo today off Nantucket Island. Although no lives were lost both vessels were reported to be badly damaged.

Passengers and part of the Ryndam's crew are being brought to New York on board the United States battleship South Carolina.

The Ryndam, convoyed by the Cuneo and the battleships South Carolina, Texas and Louisiana was steaming at low speed from New York and at 10 o'clock she was 124 miles east of the Ambrose Channel until port was reached.

lightship. The water was said to be rising rapidly in her hold.

The Ryndam's cargo consisted chiefly of foodstuffs. Only a few of the Ryndam's passengers were Americans. Wireless calls for assistance were answered by several steamers and United States battleships which were engaged in maneuvers in the neighborhood where the collision occurred.

The Cuneo is a Norwegian vessel and carries a crew of about 20 men and no passengers. The liner's passengers were first transferred to the Cuneo after the collision but later were taken on board the battleship.

Late messages from the Ryndam's captain declared she could hold out until port was reached.

ASQUITH STILL AT THE HELM

London, May 26.—The government announced the members of the new war cabinet through the official press bureau. The Liberals, as was supposed would be the case, remain in the majority, but many concessions have been made to the Unionists for the purpose of assuring harmony among the party leaders as well as among the people, while one post is assigned to a Labor member.

The ministry for the remainder of the war period—for it is not likely that its new membership will continue unaltered after a declaration of peace—will thus be constituted of 13 Liberals, 8 Unionists and 1 Labor member.

Of greatest importance, however, in the public mind, is the fact that Premier Asquith remains at the head of the government, that Earl Kitchener is retained as the secretary of state for war, though his responsibilities will hereafter be curtailed, and that Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty in the cabinet just dissolved, is practically shelved by being placed as chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster.

The duties which Earl Kitchener has heretofore born without division are to be lessened, half of them going to David Lloyd-George, who will fill a portfolio especially created for the occasion and called the ministry of munitions.

The more important folios were filled as follows:

Prime minister and first lord of treasury, H. H. Asquith; chancellor of exchequer, Reginald McKenna; foreign secretary, Sir Edward Grey; first lord of the admiralty, Arthur J. Balfour; secretary of state for war, Earl Kitchener; minister of munitions, David Lloyd-George; chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, Winston Churchill; president of council, Marquis of Curzon; home secretary, Sir John Simon; colonies, A. Bonar Law; India, Austin Chamberlain; president board of trade, Walter Runciman; chief secretary for Ireland, Augustine Birrell; president of the board of education, Arthur Henderson; attorney general, Sir Edward Carson.

Balfour, Curzon, Law, Chamberlain and Carson are Unionists and Henderson is a Laborite.

BRITISH GIVE OUT STATEMENT

London, May 26.—To make it plain that there is no intention on the part of the British government to recede from any position taken with regard to the blockade or the shipment of goods, the war office issued the following statement with reference to the controversy over cotton:

"Arrangements with regard to the shipments of cotton and other articles of commerce were agreed upon between representatives of the American interests concerned. The United States was in no sense a party to these agreements and did not take part in the conference. The British government realizes that these unofficial arrangements do not involve the United States. They do not commit either government to any departure from the views already expressed in their official notes regarding the declaration of May 1 and the blockade policy adopted to give effect to it."

AS VIENNA VIEWS RAID

Vienna, May 26.—The following statement regarding the naval raid by Austrian warships on cities of the Adriatic coast of Italy was given out here: "During the naval action an Austrian aeroplane dropped four bombs near Venice. The arsenal there was set afire and seriously damaged. Near Porto Corsini there was a violent encounter in which the Austrian cruiser Novara, the destroyer Scharfschuetze and a torpedo boat participated. Our losses were four killed and eight wounded on the Novara. The Italians lost ten to twenty men. Ancona was bombarded by the chief portion of our fleet, which caused considerable damage. Two steamers were sunk and the new wharf buildings were set afire. Near La Barletta, north of Bari, an Italian turbine destroyer was put out of action and surrendered. The crew as well as the commander and the other officers were made prisoners."

GERMAN REICHSTAG TO DISCUSS ITALY

Berlin, May 26.—The reichstag will meet on Friday to take up the war with Italy and to make provisions for carrying it on. In all likelihood the formal declaration of war will be made the same day. It is not considered as absolutely necessary that such a decree be issued, for German troops are with the Austrians now on the Italian frontier and will strike with them against Italy.

BRITISH ARE FORCED OUT OF TRENCHES

London, May 26.—Huge clouds of asphyxiating gases were thrown against the British lines east of Ypres by the Germans and the atmosphere was rendered so poisonous that a portion of the first line trenches had to be evacuated. Before the stifling fumes had been cleared away by a rising breeze the German forces had dashed in and so strongly occupied the deserted embankments that the allied forces have not yet been able to reoccupy them. But while the attack entailed certain losses of not very great importance, one fact of a highly encouraging nature was established. It is that over a considerable portion of the trenches engulfed in the asphyxiating gas the troops were able to withstand the suffocating atmosphere and retain their positions, despite a vigorous onslaught. This fact is brought out in a report from Field Marshal Sir John French and is taken by him to indicate that the methods devised for resisting poisonous gases will shortly prove entirely effectual.

CLOSE TO THE TURKS' TRENCHES

London, May 26.—The press bureau publishes an official report from Cairo regarding the joint operations in the Dardanelles as follows: "On May 21 the first French division made considerable progress and are now close to the Turkish trenches. On the 22nd the enemy made a determined attack on the left of the Indian brigade, and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon gained a temporary footing. But they were driven back with a loss of 500 Turks and a number of prisoners. On May 23 the Turks asked for and obtained a suspension of hostilities opposite the Australian and New Zealand army corps, to enable them to bury the Turkish dead close to our trenches. More than 3,000 Turks who were killed between the 18th and 21st were buried."

Italy and the War

Another European nation, prepared for war, has had war "forced" upon it. Italy has cast her lot with the allies in the great struggle and in doing so, will add materially to the force now opposing the Teutonic alliance.

The Italian navy is well equipped and is one of the large navies of the world. The army too is numerically strong and the artillery is unexcelled.

It is doubtful, unless there is a decided change in the method of warfare, if the Italian navy will be of much assistance to the allies. The war so far has been one wherein naval forces are practically useless except as commerce destroyers and blockade forces.

Italy's main assistance to the allied forces should be in the campaign to open the Dardanelles and it is more than likely that the greater part of the offensive land campaign by the fresh Italian troops will be directed against the German, Austrian and Turkish forces now holding the gateway to Russia against the attacks of the allied forces.

Russia has been unable to render that assistance to the allies which was expected, because of a shortage of arms and ammunition. The Czar's forces are without limit in numbers, they have horses and provisions in plenty and that they are not lacking in courage and ability is proven by the success of their campaign in Poland and East Prussia.

The disastrous defeat of the Russians and the retreat from dearly bought positions in Poland is attributable to the shortage of arms and ammunition. The distance across Siberia from the coast of Manchuria is too long and the transportation facilities too primitive to carry the vast quantities of arms and ammunition which the Russian army requires to carry to success its offensive campaign on the east front of battle.

The only solution of this one big problem seems to be the forcing of the Dardanelles and thus securing the entrance to Russia from the world which her necessities and the necessities of the allies require. A long campaign has demonstrated that the allied fleet must have the assistance of the land forces if the stronghold of Germany and Turkey is to be captured.

Italy is ideally located to rush her armies to that much needed point. With Italy arrayed against them, the only avenue of communication to the outside world, save one, is closed to Germany and Austria.

The importance of Italy's entrance into the war should not be underestimated. Strategically the allies have gained important territory, to say nothing of the fighting force which Italy's co-operation will add. It is not likely that the forces of King Victor Emmanuel will take part in the fighting in Flanders or Poland. The troops will be used to block the outlet to the Mediterranean and to assist in the offensive in the land operations about the Dardanelles, in all probability.

The New Depot Movement

The meeting, last week, of the local business men and the Baltimore & Ohio railroad officials and the meeting, this week, of the local business men with the officials of the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton railroad is not discouraging to those of our citizens who want for and believe Washington is entitled to, better passenger depot accommodations.

This city is the best point from a business standpoint, and that is the only standpoint which appeals to railroad officials, on the four railroads that pass through the city, barring only the terminal stations.

The two meetings resulted in bringing railroad officials and local business men into closer touch with each other and, if there is any such thing as a sympathetic chord in business, the meetings must have tuned up that chord. Washington certainly is entitled to sympathy on account of her depot accommodations, or rather the lack of them.

How much progress the two meetings resulted in making along the road to better conditions is of course a problem which time only can answer. The distinguished visitors who have met with our citizens have not, and perhaps that is unfortunate too, the last word to say in the subject matter of the discussions last week and this. They are, however, men whose active and earnest co-operation our citizens must receive before favorable action is taken by the final authorities.

At any rate officials and citizens became acquainted with each other and talked over needs and remedies. Our citizens were glad to entertain their visitors and it is certain that the visitors carried away with them, guaranteeing at least a friendly feeling and a desire to help and that is of some considerable importance.

The benefits which follow such meetings and greetings are always indirect but, in a fair percentage of cases, certain. The meetings, if nothing else, served to break the ice and open up and establish a line of communication without which no campaign can succeed.

Certain it is that this is a good start toward the long sought goal and may be considered a real beginning of a real earnest campaign.

Poetry For Today

THE FUTURE OF WAR.
 Not with cannon huge and fearsome,
 Not with rifles in the trench
 Will we battle in the future,
 But with gases full of stench.

Not with shrapnel nor with Maxims
 Will we butcher, slay, or beat,
 But with tender hearts we'll spray
 them
 Thick with ether till they sleep.

There will be no cries of anguish
 And no rivers running red,
 When the chloroforming snipers
 Get their fellows in the head.

Forward, then, the charging squad-
 rons,
 Not amid the battle's roar,
 But with squirt-guns full of chlorine
 Rake the foemen aft and fore!

Charge, for King and so forth, so
 forth,
 Firing mustard up the slope!
 Charge—with needles hypodermic—
 Shoot your neighbor full of dope.

Fumes of burning shoes and rubbers,
 Pepper, garlic, and of hay,
 Quickly clear the mines and trenches
 Help to win the glorious day.

Thousands strew the scene of battle,
 Anesthesia's victims they,
 Snoring loudly as they slumber,
 Resting meanwhile from the fray.

Cannon-makers out of business,
 Chemicals producing now—
 Knockout drops instead of bullets—
 Danger lurks not in a row.

Thus the nations all can pleasure
 In a war that's safe and sane,
 Save for some poor sleepy victim,
 Who, in falling, gets a sprain.
 —Livingston Lance.

Porto Rico's Sugar.

The important part played by the sugar industry in the material welfare of Porto Rico is shown by the figures of exports. Out of a total valuation of exports amounting to $43,000,000 during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, sugar alone constituted over $20,000,000. This was the lowest sum realized for sugar exports in five years. Under normal conditions sugar constitutes two-thirds the total value of all exports.

Government Statistics Show Growth of Railroad Investment.

Data filed with the interstate commerce commission at Washington shows that in the fiscal year 1914 the railroads in the middle west increased their investment in road and equipment by $49,964,000. Yet such was the reduction in earnings and the increase in expenses, that the net operating revenue was less by $35,000,000 than for the previous year and was the smallest since 1905. The interstate commerce commission, which has spent about four years investigating freight rates, and which is never accused of showing favoritism to the carriers, finds that one of the reasons why the railroads are not making both ends meet is because passenger rates, fixed by states in the middle west, are too low. Do we want to crush the life out of the railroads because some of the railroads have not always played fair? Or do we want them to receive a living wage so they can continue to improve service and keep out of the bankruptcy courts? Nothing is to be gained by persecution. We are all too intimately affected by anything that happens to our railroads for that. A broad-minded policy would be to grant the request for the one-half cent increase in view of the fact that the cut of 33 1-3 per cent was an experiment that has beyond doubt proven disastrous not only to the railroads, but to practically everyone.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Adenoids and a Husky Voice.

Persistent hoarseness or huskiness in very young children is a common symptom of adenoids, obstructing the entrance of air through the nose. If the husky voice exists with mouth breathing it is a positive sign of obstructions within the nose. The early removal of the adenoids is almost always advisable. Children who are habitual mouth breathers, both by day and night, never sleep well at night. Such children become languid, restless and prone oftentimes to melancholy. Mouth breathers soon acquire a dull expression—the face is stupid and often semidiotish in expression.

In a large number of cases the hearing becomes impaired. Where the mouth breathing has existed since infancy there is in other children often a marked deformity of the chest. These growths often produce anaemia and general malnutrition owing to the constant interference with sleep and obstruction to respiration.

Operation is the best treatment for children suffering from adenoids. There is practically no danger. The improvement after the operation is in proportion to the severity of the previous symptoms. The respiration is freer, the sleep becomes quiet, the mouth is soon habitually closed, the voice improves, and the benefit to the general health is in a short time apparent. The whole appearance of the child is often transformed in a few months.

And to think that it is only nine years from the debris of dismantled San Francisco to the palatial city which challenges and entertains a world today!

Europe gives unstinted praise to England's style of army, yet the same kind of armies here in the civil war were set down as "mobs" by contemporary foreigners.

Villa's hopes lie in the common soldier. All right so long as he has enough of them, for God is said to be "on the side of the biggest battalions," not the best ones.

Lord Salisbury's Joke.

Count Myatovich, former Serbian minister, told in London the story of a meeting he once had with the late Lord Salisbury. "He was a brilliant man and a great statesman," he said. "A little cynical, he never lost an opportunity of leaving a laugh at one's expense, but in his laugh there was never a trace of any malice. In the interview I recounted my nation's history, when he seemed a little bored. At the end Lord Salisbury dryly remarked: 'I thank you, minister. Now I know what I did not know before—that you have a brilliant history. But, my dear friend, it would have been much better for the Serbs if you had a less brilliant history and a port on the Adriatic.'"

NOBEL'S GREAT GIFT.

Yearly Prizes That Come From the Fund He Left to Posterity.

Alfred B. Nobel, the Swedish scientist and inventor of dynamite, died in 1896, leaving his fortune, which was estimated at $9,000,000, to the founding of a fund of which the interest should be yearly given as prizes to those persons who had during the year contributed most to "the good of humanity." The interest is divided in five equal shares, awarded as follows:

"One to the person who in the domain of physics has made the most important discovery or invention, one to the person who has made the most important chemical discovery or invention, one to the person who has made the most important discovery in the domain of medicine or physiology, one to the person who in literature has provided the most excellent work of an idealistic tendency and one to the person who has worked most or best for the fraternization of nations and the abolition or reduction of standing armies and the calling and propagating of peace congresses."

The value of each prize is, on an average $50,000. The awards for physics and chemistry are given by the Swedish Academy of Science, that for physiological or medical work by the Caroline Institute (the faculty of medicine in Stockholm), that for literature by the Swedish Academy of Stockholm and the peace prize by a committee of five persons elected by the Norwegian storting.—Philadelphia Press.

YOUTH BADLY INJURED WHEN HORSE RUNS OFF

Henry Shoop, the 18-year-old son of H. C. Shoop, was seriously injured near the B. & O. station at noon Wednesday, when the horse he was driving, attached to the Wells Fargo express wagon, ran away and the heavy wagon passed over him.

The young man, who for sometime has been driving one of the Wells Fargo wagons, is said to have been standing near the wagon when the horse started, and was knocked down and the wagon struck him in such a way that his jaw was dislocated and fractured. Besides the dislocation and fracture he sustained a number of ugly bruises and painful cuts.

He was removed to the office of Dr. Brock and later transferred to the Fayette Hospital, where he will remain for the time being.

After running over the young man the horse continued up the railroad track at a mad gallop, damaging the wagon.

YOUNG MAN DIES IN COLUMBUS PRISON

Roy Lohr, formerly of Bloomingburg, died in Columbus Tuesday, and his remains were shipped to Bloomingburg Wednesday morning and funeral services will be held at two o'clock Thursday afternoon, followed by interment in the Bloomingburg cemetery.

The shocking circumstances surrounding his death are given by the State Journal, as follows:

"Roy Lohr, aged 30, a groceryman who lived at 2432 West Broad street, died yesterday in a padded cell at the city prison, presumably from alcoholism and morphinism. Lohr is said to have been a user of morphine, and he had been drinking heavily when arrested. Because of violence, he was placed in the padded cell."

MUCH LIVE STOCK KILLED BY STORM

During the storm of Tuesday night quite a little damage was done by the lightning, and quite a number of horses and cattle were killed.

Mr. Isaac Corey, of south of Good Hope, seems to have been the heaviest loser, three valuable draft mares being killed. He had very little insurance on them.

Lewis Parrett, of near Good Hope, also lost a valuable mare, and Darlington Brothers, south of town, lost two head of cattle.

The child died Tuesday morning after a few months' illness, death being due to heart trouble. Short funeral services were held at the Fenner home in Columbus and the remains were shipped to this city on the 3:33 B. & O. train and taken to the local cemetery where interment was made. A large number of relatives and friends accompanied the remains.

ATHLETICS HAVE CLOSED WITH WILMINGTON FOR A SERIES OF SIX GAMES IN JUNE, JULY AND AUGUST—HIG CORWIN SENDS WORD THAT HE WILL BE BACK ON THE JOB AT SHORT BY JUNE 6 — CATCHER HUNLING OF DAYTON RESERVES SIGNED UP AND WILL OPEN WITH ATHLETICS NEXT SUNDAY—BATES PIRATES HERE SUNDAY AND MONDAY.

If ever the illustrious baseball bug of Washington C. H. got a real stiff workout its this week. With all kinds of things happening in a bunch, and good things, the official dope insect fairly whistles.

The first thing of importance on the tape is the closing of a contract with Wilmington by Manager Noon about the games scheduled for Sunday and Monday with the Bates Pirates of Columbus. The Pirates come here with a rep. They defeated the Chillicothe State Leaguers not long ago, in an exhibition game, and a week ago were holding out a claim that they had not been defeated this season.

The Washington lineup and batting order for Sunday and Monday will be as follows: Mobley, rf; Dorsey, ss; Runnells, 2b; Noon, 1f; Hungeling, c; Reed, 3b; Cotterill, Linson, p; Hagerty, 1b; Jones cf.

RAILROADS IN ARGENTINA.

Run Under Rules Framed by a Strict Government Commission.

Argentina has a commission which is in some respects even more powerful than the interstate commerce commission. The direction general de ferrocarriles, as it is named, prescribes the number of trains to be run and insists on the number of coaches. Every night train must carry a certain number of sleeping cars, and dining cars, or restaurant cars, as they are known in Argentina; are obligatory on runs of certain distance. Every train is obliged to carry a letter box, and recently the railroads have been squeezed into carrying the mails for nothing.

A medicine chest, a stretcher and a bicycle—this last to establish quick communication with the nearest station in case of an accident—are compulsory on every passenger train.

Every passenger coach is disinfected each month, and the precautions for preserving the cleanliness of sleeping cars are probably the most thorough in the world.

No time table can be altered without the sanction of the director general and at least two months in advance of their taking effect. If trains stop at stations not scheduled a heavy fine is imposed, and all late trains must be reported to the government, with the reason for being delayed.—New York Tribune.

GERMS ON SALADS.

A Simple Method by Which All Danger May Be Avoided.

Drs. Loir and Legagneux of Paris tested vinegar as a destroyer of the germs of typhoid fever. That they are killed by a mixture of wine and water in equal parts has long been known. These investigators prove now that twenty grams of vinegar to a liter of water kill the typhoid bacillus in an hour and five minutes.

"From this," writes the Paris correspondent of the London Lancet, "a

Last but not least, Manager Noon received a special Wednesday from Captain Hungeling of the Dayton Reserves, stating that the latter would be pleased to sign up with the Athletics on terms offered and will be here Sunday to begin work behind the bat for Washington.

Hungeling was here with the Reserves several weeks ago and is one of the best backstops that has performed in Washington for some time, and a slugger as well.

The signing of Hungeling comes as a relief to Hagerty who has been having difficulty behind the bat lately because of his eyes. Stan has been "stickin' 'er out" like a good soldier though, and is certainly entitled to the first base job that will fall his lot.

Considerable interest centers about the games scheduled for Sunday and Monday with the Bates Pirates of Columbus. The Pirates come here with a rep. They defeated the Chillicothe State Leaguers not long ago, in an exhibition game, and a week ago were holding out a claim that they had not been defeated this season.

The Washington lineup and batting order for Sunday and Monday will be as follows: Mobley, rf; Dorsey, ss; Runnells, 2b; Noon, 1f; Hungeling, c; Reed, 3b; Cotterill, Linson, p; Hagerty, 1b; Jones cf.

practical inference may be drawn concerning salads. After washing the salad as usual, detaching each leaf, it should be put into water acidulated with ten grams of vinegar to the liter and remain immersed in this liquid for about an hour and a quarter. All vegetables ordinarily eaten uncooked may be subjected without any inconvenience to the same process.

A liter is equivalent to about a quart and ten grams are equivalent to about a third of an ounce. So if lettuce or other greens for salad be placed in water to which about one-third of an ounce of vinegar has been added and be left for about an hour and a quarter all danger of typhoid fever will be removed.

The Centipede.

The centipede was formerly a resident of the southern part of this country, but it has gradually worked its way to the north, so that now it is quite common in nearly every portion of the country. It thrives best in damp and warm places and has its redeeming feature in that it catches and destroys many of the domestic pests we are well rid of. Its method of catching an insect seems to be to spring over it, inclosing and caging it with its many legs. The belief occasionally met with that the centipede feeds on household goods and woolsens or other clothing is without foundation. On the other hand, the bite of this creature is undoubtedly more or less poisonous, the effect depending on the susceptibility of the patient.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

SIX NURSES FROM FAYETTE HOSPITAL RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES WERE HELD IN PRESENCE OF LARGE CROWD IN HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM LAST NIGHT AND ENJOYABLE RECEPTION FOLLOWS—MASTER-CLASS ADDRESS IS DELIVERED BY REV. ROSS—COMMENCEMENT FIRST OF KIND EVER HELD IN CITY.

A thoroughly delightful and high-interesting event of Tuesday evening was the first annual commencement exercises of the Fayette Hospital Training School for Nurses, held at the High School auditorium, where six charming and highly talented young women who have studied under the careful direction of Florence Schryver, Superintendent of Nurses of the Fayette Hospital, were awarded their diplomas. A large audience attended the exercises.

The stage was elaborately decorated with potted plants and cut flowers and the class colors of white and blue were attractively carried out. Miss Schryver and the six graduates, Misses Mary Rinehart, Jane Lillian Ferguson, Ethel James, Oma Park and Elizabeth Grove, were dressed in pure white and sat well forward on the stage, with the undergraduates seated immediately behind them and a half circle or more of local physicians seated in a semi-circle back of the group.

Included with the physicians was Dr. L. M. McFadden, founder and owner of the Fayette Hospital which was so admirably filled a long felt need.

Rev. A. W. West, of the First Baptist church, presided and the invocation was pronounced by Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage, of the First Presbyterian church. A number of charming selections were rendered by Messrs Kneisley and Whelpley and the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs of the Washington High School, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Sheen, contributed several splendid numbers. The children's chorus also received a round of applause.

The class address was a masterly one, delivered by Rev. F. E. Ross, of Grace M. E. church, who spoke on "The Nurse—the High Priestess of Humanity," and in his address Rev. Ross paid marked tribute to those who devote their time to the sick and afflicted and are willing to undergo any hardship for the relief of suffering humanity.

Rev. Ross spoke for more than a half hour and the address was pronounced one of the most pleasing and appropriate commencement addresses ever given in the city.

The diplomas were presented to the graduates by Supt Wm. McClain, whose remarks were charmingly adapted to the occasion.

Rev. A. W. West presented the class pins and Rev. Gage pronounced the benediction.

Following the commencement a reception was held at the Nurses' home on North street. It was attended by a large number, many unable to get in the house and all eager to extend congratulations to the coterie of attractive young graduates, receiving with Miss Florence Schryver, Supt. of Nurses.

Whelpley and Kneisley furnished delightful music and social features were a pleasurable addenda to the successful first commencement under the auspices of the Fayette Hospital.

DEATH FOLLOWS PARALYTIC STROKE

At nine o'clock Wednesday morning Mr. L. O. Tullis was stricken with paralysis at the J. W. McClure store in Bloomingburg, where he has held a clerkship. He was taken at once to his home, but all medical efforts proved unable to conquer disease and death followed at one o'clock p. m.

Mr. Tullis was a man held in high esteem in Bloomingburg, and the village is shocked and distressed over his sudden call. He also leaves a circle of friends and acquaintances in this city, where his daughter, Miss Blanche, is a teacher in the public schools.

Only last week a family reunion was enjoyed at the Tullis home. The only son, Rev. Don Tullis, and wife, of Newark, and the two daughters, Mrs. Merwin, of Athens, and Miss Tullis, being home together. Mr. Tullis and wife returned home with Mrs. Merwin for a few days stay and Mr. Tullis had apparently been in usual health since coming back from Athens.

Funeral arrangements have not been made.

On the Sea.

From all antiquity and in all ages men have gone down to the sea in ships and plowed the main. There is a fascination about the ocean that never grows old, and the terrors that encompass the waste of waters seem but to add to its attractions. Perhaps this arises from the fact that the ocean covers the only free land on the globe. The sailor on his humble bark has an equal right of way with the mighty steamship; he pays no rent and calls no man master. Once he touches land he must bow to the law of King This or Queen That, but on the high seas he can roam without let or hindrance and owes allegiance to no ruler but nature. The sailor leads a hard and perilous life and has the single boon of freedom to compensate for risk and privation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

"A Man is as Old as He Feels."
The well known saying, "A man is as old as he feels, a woman as old as she looks," it seems, is pure Liverpoolian, and legal at that. During the trial of a breach of promise case there arose some argument as to the desirability of a man of forty-nine marrying a girl of twenty, whereupon the judge delivered the famous epigram. He even went one better, for, when counsel for the defense argued that the lady had had a lucky escape from marrying such a man as his client, the witty judge observed: "What the woman loses is the man she thinks him to be."—Liverpool Post.

WATER POLO WILL BE STARTED TONIGHT

The announcement a few days ago that a water polo team was to be organized has aroused not a little interest, with the result that something like fifteen persons have signified their intention of trying their fins when the sport opens at the Y. M. C. A. pool tonight.

The game is new to Washington and the training will be under the supervision of Director McClung. The pool will be ready at 7:30.

ITALY AND AUSTRIANS BEGIN WAR

Rome, May 26.—Italian troops, advancing on a front of about thirty-five miles, have entered Austrian territory and occupied several towns near the border. The Austrians made slight resistance, retiring evidently to their strongly fortified lines.

The war office tells of the occupation of the heights between the Insonzo and the Judrio, and the capture of the town of Caporetto, in that region. These heights extend over a distance of about twenty miles.

The rapid stroke of the Italian army bespeaks a long preparation, bearing out what the press of the allied countries contended months ago, that Italy would throw in her lot with the entente and was only waiting for an opportune time.

Baron Macchio, the Austrian ambassador, and Prince Schoenburg-Hartenstein, the Austrian envoy to the vatican, went in separate automobiles to the station and left by special train. Prince Von Buelow and Dr. Von Muehlberg, the Prussian envoy to the holy see, and the Bavarian minister to the quirinal and his colleague accredited to the vatican left ten minutes later. The staffs of the embassies and legations accompanied their respective chiefs. The departure of the diplomats was not marked by the slightest untoward incident.

It is expected that Pope Benedict will at once make two important pronouncements, one declaring that the neutrality of the vatican is unimpaired by Italy's declaration of war, the other declaring that there is no incompatibility between the neutrality of the police and loyalty and patriotism on the part of Italian Catholics. The relations between the vatican and the Italian government already begin to show a great improvement on account of the war.

The inhabitants of the village of Tivoli, outside Rome, attempted to storm the historic Villa d'Este, which belonged to the late Archduke Francis Ferdinand. The crowd pulled down the Austrian coat of arms over the entrance and hoisted the Italian flag

El Paso, Tex., May 26.—General Villa has met his third defeat at the hands of General Obregon since the latter began advancing into Villa's territory along the Mexican Central railroad. This is admitted in Villa circles, and it is reported that the Villa troops are retiring again on Aguas Calientes to make another stand. The total losses of the two armies in the fighting of the last three days are said to be above 3,000.

General Obregon is now entrenched nine kilometers south of Leon, according to Carranza advices. This supplements the official reports of Obregon, which stated that he had defeated the Villistas in the three days' battle and had effected an important advance.

PLACES BLAME ON AUSTRIANS

Washington, May 26.—Italy finds in Austria-Hungary's harsh action towards Serbia last summer, without prior consultation with Italy, the basis for her declaration of war against the dual empire, according to the official presentation of Italy's case handed to Secretary Bryan by Count Cellerio, the Italian ambassador. By its attack on Serbia, the Italian government says, Austria severed the triple alliance with its own hands.

Falling to obtain through diplomatic circles the satisfaction of her territorial and national aspiration, Italy announces in her note that a declaration of war was the only means of safeguarding her position in Europe.

CATARACT OF THE EYE.

It May Come at Any Time of Life, and Its Goal Is Blindness.

Cataract is an opacity of the crystalline lens caused by interference with its nutrition. As the rays of light cannot penetrate this opaque matter it results in blindness. A cataract may come at any time of life, but is most apt to come in old age, when senile changes take place in all parts of the body.

A cataract may be caused by changes in the eye before birth. Children are born with a cataract. It may be caused by changes during childhood, by disease or injury, by excessive and persistent light and heat and by many other causes. Glassblowers are subject to it, X-ray workers, sufferers from diabetes and many others. It may be a primary disease or it may be secondary to other diseases.

It is often very successfully treated by operation, particularly in the aged, the lens or lens and its capsule being removed. The development of cataract is sometimes very rapid, especially after injury, but in the aged it takes place slowly, sometimes requiring years before blindness results. The operation is not usually done until the cataract is mature or ripe. An earlier operation frequently militates against a successful result.—Philadelphia Record.

DEGREES OF COOKING.

What Is Meant by Rare, Medium and Well Done Meat.

Perhaps a word may be said about the degree of cooking, as indicated by the words rare, medium and well done, used in reference to the cooking of meat.

Some people interpret "rare" as meaning meat seared a little on the outside, but with the whole interior raw. This is far from a correct interpretation. The albumen should be coagulated, the fibers really cooked, but the juice may be yet red or pink. In "medium" there is still some pink left in the meat, though the red color has left the juice, while well done means no pink color in either juice or fiber, but not the stringy, overcooked, tasteless product so often served as "well done" meat.

The quantity and kind of meat used by any family depend upon its living habits, its appreciation of food values and the money available for food. The excessive use of meat means an unnecessary expenditure of money as well as an unnecessary tax upon the kidneys and liver, but in any case the preparation of it is a most important factor.—Woman's World.

ATTEMPT MADE TO CREMATE A PRIEST

Baltimore, O., May 26. — An unsuccessful attempt was made to burn to death Rev. Charles H. Gardner, pastor of the Catholic church, when his personage was set on fire while he was asleep. LOCKS OR SEA LEVEL.

The Wisdom That Was Shown in Building the Panama Waterway.

The slides in the Panama canal have led some persons to say that it was a mistake not to build a sea level canal. In discussing that criticism Mr. Charles Whiting Baker, editor of the Engineering News, recently said that the few engineers who urged a sea level canal now dislike to be reminded of the fact.

"Bad as the slides are and costly as the work of cleaning them away is proving to be," said Mr. Baker, "they would be vastly greater if the canal at Culebra cut were made eighty-five feet deeper, as it would have to be in order to lower the canal to sea level. But even that is not the worst. In a sea level canal there would be slides to contend with not only in the nine mile long Culebra cut, but all the way across the isthmus—in the deep morasses along the lower Chagres river, for example, where in some places the soft mud is a hundred feet deep. When at Panama I myself saw a slide move into the cut that was being made for the Gatun locks foundation, in which half an acre or so of soft ground flowed down the slope like stiff molasses.

"We owe a great debt of gratitude for our correct choice to President Taft, President Roosevelt, Colonel Goethals and the late Alfred Noble and other great engineers, who threw all the weight of their influence in favor of a lock canal. There is no dissent in the engineering profession from this assertion, and the public ought also to understand it."

New Found Asphalt Bed.

An asphalt bed which seems practically inexhaustible is now being developed commercially in Leyte province, in the Philippine Islands. The bed lies near the shore line at Tacloban, at which port ships can anchor and take on cargo of the asphalt from lighters loaded at the mines, with practically no overland transportation. The deposits also contain oil of a high grade. The asphalt is almost pure near the surface and is exceptionally pure at greater depths. The oil deposits—evidenced by oil flowing with water from a spring—contain oil pure enough to be used by the natives for illuminating purposes.

The Gypsies.

The origin of the people known as gypsies remains largely a mystery. Egypt, India, Persia and Arabia have in turn been pointed out as their original country, but there is little definite knowledge on the subject. The weight of evidence is in favor of their having originated in India. They first appeared in Europe about 1400 and from the Danube region spread all over the continent, appearing in England about 1520.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Seven Seas.
The phrase "the seven seas" has been current for some time—was so current when Kipling universalized it twenty years ago—to denote all the great waters of the earth. Its use divides into seven parts the "tripartite ocean" (the Atlantic, Pacific and Indian oceans) as the north and south Atlantic, the north and south Pacific, the Indian, the Arctic and the Antarctic oceans. It is interesting to note that Roman Italy had its "seven seas," the chain of salt lagoons about the mouth of the Po, separated from the Adriatic by strips of sand or embankments. The lagoons were in ancient days much more extensive than now, and the "Septem Mares" afforded a continuous means of internal navigation from Ravenna to Altinum.—New York Times.

In an adjoining room lay two of her children; a girl one year old and a boy, aged 4, with cords drawn tightly around their necks.

The boy was later revived but the baby died. Detectives believe Mrs. O'Neill became suddenly demented, tied the cords around the children's necks and then, believing them dead shot and killed herself.

FIGHTING IN FANCY DRESS.

One English Troop Used to Be Called the Golden Goldfinches.

Dandies were much in evidence in the Peninsular war, and an officer of the famous Light division has recorded how some of the officers were "rigged out in all the colors of the rainbow. Some had gray braided coats, others brown; some again liked blue, and the comical appearance of a number of infantry officers loaded with leather bottoms to their pantaloons and huge chains suspended from the side buttons was amusing enough. * * *

The 'cut down' hat, exactly a span in height, was another rage. This burlesque on a chapeau was usually topped by some extraordinary looking feather!"

The Duke of Wellington, however, never troubled about what his officers wore if only they brought their men intact into the firing line with sixty rounds of ammunition apiece, and one of the chaplains, known as "the Fighting Parson," always wore a red Hussar jacket, while during the battle of Victoria General Picton wore, instead of the usual cocked hat, a round and very old hat and carried "a huge white umbrella lined with green."

But it is doubtful if any regiment has ever been dressed more strangely than the old Portsea volunteers, who in 1797 wore gold and scarlet cords, golden rosettes, feathers, cockades, white waistcoats, "gold wings" (to quote the official description) and "frilled skirts, largely figured." Hence their nickname, "The Golden Goldfinches."—London Tit-Bits.

Impudence.
Two-thirds of Jones' makeup is curiosity, the other third wit. A short time ago he met his neighbor proudly displaying a valuable horse. "That is a fine horse you have there, Brown," he exclaimed cordially. "How much did you give for him?"

"I gave my note," was the crisp rejoinder.

"Well, you got him cheap," said Jones.—Chicago News.

Newspaper Advertising

Goes direct to the people and the people constitute the buying public. Newspaper advertising not only talks but it emphasizes; it has the undivided attention of the reader and covers a field no salesman can hope to reach. There are many styles in newspaper advertising and the small announcement, which costs only five cents, is just as effective in its way as the larger one, which costs proportionately more. The benefits to be derived can not be measured by the size of the ad, for the very good reason that the small, inexpensive announcement invariably proves effective. Newspaper advertising costs from five cents up to any price the advertiser desires to pay.
